DETAILED ACTION

1. The amendment filed 01/28/2010 has been entered. Claims 3-4, 11 and 16-17 have been cancelled. Claims 1-2, 5-10, 12-15 and 18-21 are pending in the application. The previous 35 USC 112 rejection of claim 9 has been withdrawn in light of the applicant's amendment to claim 9.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-2, 7 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US Patent No. 5,658,298 to Vincent et al. (Vincent).

In regards to claims 1-2, 7 and 9:

Vincent teaches:

A surgically implantable adjustable ring for constricting a tubular organ, the adjustable ring (10, Fig. 2) comprising: an open ring body having closure system including a first (where 14 is, Fig. 2) and a second end parts (11, Fig. 2), the open ring body being designed to be closed around the tubular organ; the closure system constricting the tubular organ by closing the ring and forming the ring into a loop; and the first end part including a first reinforcement flange (the portion between the sleeve 14 and the aperture 16, Fig. 1) and a sleeve (14, Fig.

1) having a first and a second portions (front and back of sleeve, Fig. 2) and defining a first aperture (15, Fig. 1) and a second aperture (16, Fig. 1) disposed substantially parallel to the first aperture (15, Fig. 1), the sleeve (14, Fig. 2) being designed to receive the second end part (11, Fig. 2), the sleeve (14, Fig. 2) being disposed in a substantially perpendicular direction in relation to the direction of the first end part (where 14 is, Fig. 2), the second part (11, Fig. 2) comprising a locking protrusion (12, Fig. 2) adapted to engage and fill the first aperture (15, Fig. 1) in the sleeve (14, Fig. 2), thereby securing the ring (10, Fig. 2) in a closed position; wherein the second aperture (16, Fig. 2) remains substantially unfilled when the ring (10, Fig. 2) is in a closed position. The second portion of the sleeve defines the second aperture (15, Fig. 2), and wherein the second portion of the sleeve partially overlaps the second part (11, Fig. 2) when the ring (10, Fig. 2) is in the closed position. Wherein the first reinforcement flange (the portion between the sleeve 14 and the aperture 16, Fig. 1) is disposed transversally to the external perimeter of the ring. The ring (10, Fig. 2) is made of biocompatible elastomeric material.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Vincent in view of US Patent No. 4,442,153 to Meltsch (Meltsch).

In regards to claim 8:

Vincent teaches:

The closure system according to claim 1 (see rejections of claim 1 above).

Vincent fails to teach:

A second reinforcement flange adjacent the aperture.

Meltsch teaches:

A second reinforcement flange (Col. 2, lines 4-18) adjacent the aperture.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to employ reinforcement structures at the sleeve in order to reinforce the sleeve in the event of breakage.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 5-6, 10, 12-15 and 18-21 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-2 and 7-9 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
